Societe Generale is a credit institution and investment services provider (entitled to perform banking activities and/or to provide investment services other than the operation of Multilateral Trading Facilities) authorised and regulated by the French Autorité de Contrôle Prudentiel et de Résolution (Prudential and Resolution Control Authority) and Autorité des Marchés Financiers (Financial Markets Authority) and for prudential purpose by the European Central Bank (ECB). Societe Generale is subject to limited regulation by the UK Financial Services Authority («FSA») for the conduct of its business in the United Kingdom. Societe Generale benefits from the EC passport authorising the provision of certain banking and investment services within the EEA.
